Mr. Webster and Protection in Boston. BOSTON, May 26, 1843.

To the Editor of The Tribune :

The Journal of Commerce affects to have just made a startling discovery, and gravely announces that "the leading manufacturers in Boston, &c.] have at length become thoroughly satisfied that Protection is a delusion." This bold assertion may perhaps acquire some small degree of plausibility, from a correspondence just published between Mr. Webster and a few of his personal friends of this vicinity. I apprehend, however, that far too extravagant inferences are drawn from the Letter of Mr. W.'s Boston friends. It was doubtless intended as a complimentary episthe of condolence on the Secretary's retirement from a station to which he had adhered with so much pertinacity; and it should be borne in mind that it was written before Mr. Webster had given atterance to the visionary notions developed in his Baltimore speech. This very speech, if I mistake not, has opened the eyes of these gentlemen to the ulterior views of Mr. Webster. Certain it is that the leading manufacturers of New England have the smallest possible faith in the efficacy of his plans for arranging, by negotiation, the vexed questions having reference to regulating the Tariff. They regard them as entirely visionary, if nothing worse. It is not my purpose, in a short letter, to argue the merits of the grave subjects broached in the Baltimore speech, nor even to offer any strictures on the speech itself, although it is open to attack on all sides. I have no doubt, however, that the positions assumed by Mr. Webster will be met and controverted by his old New-England friends, and by none more earnestly than the leading manufacturers. In regard to the letter of condolence : of the two dozen signers, a majority have been, in times tion-perhaps a fourth part-are gentlemen whose opinions have not been much known, if they have had any definite views on the question of Free Trade and Protection; while not more than a fourth portion of them have been avowed advocates of a Protective Tariff. They are, however, highly respectable gentlemen, and, as the personal friends of Mr. Webster, they may have been induced to sign the letter to gratify their friend on his retirement from public life. As practical rep-New-England they will not be recognized. We down the profits to a mere pittance. do not find the names of the Lawrences, nor the Appletons, on that Letter. Mr. W.'s reasons adverse to constant changes in the policy of the Government all go to show that we ought to hold fast to tried. But, instead of enlarging on this topic, I will refer you to Mr. Webster's own arguments in that speech, against his own aims.

The truth is that intelligent men here regard of the speaker in favor of John C. Calhoun for next President: It is Calhounism up to the hub, and a bid for the office of Secretary of State under the great Nullifier, with the chances for the succession, if such an 'arrangement' can be accomplished. Monile, May 19, 1813. We learned at Claiborne that Judge Gold-TRWAITE, of Mobile, had received the nomination for Congress from the Locos of this District. It is believed he will not accept it. It is the very best nomination they could have made.

On the stern is a fine device showing the union of America and England -On the right is Liberty with the Eagle at her feet; in the left is Britannia with the Lion at her feet. Between the two figures, represented in a recumbent position, are the shields of the two nations, and directly underneath are the hands of friendship showing the happy union of the United States and England. The carving was executed by Comwell, the excellent marine artist. There are several points of great excellence about this ship. First, and most important, is her uncommon strength. She is built of the best breoak, cedar and locust, and wherever copper, on or timber could be placed to give strength, here they are in great abundance. We have lever seen in any ship nine such breast-hooks, or such a range of knees. The second excellence is be arrangement and finish of her cabin. Neither benev nor labor has been spared to render it elecant and complete. The state-rooms are large and well ventilated, and fitted up in a style not eletior to that of any hotel. Pittsburgh-Business Lively-Iron Work Lumber Trade-Politics-Magnets, &c.

Correspondence of The New-York Tribune. Ритавинен, Ра., Мау 21, 1843.

Business is very good with us, and gradually and permanently improving. What I look upon as fair evidence of this is the improved demand for manufactured articles. Some of our rolling mills are pressed for iron, and are running on "full time "-that is, all the time. Each mill has double sets of hands, and when the demand is small, as it has been for a year past, they run only during the day; technically "half-time," or half-work : for then each set is idle three days in the week. Our Banks are discounting every good note offered. A few months ago nothing but first-rate paper was received: now, they are glad to get even good. The River is low, but a heavy rain yesterday will bring it up again. The carrying trade is in no-wise diminished. The following is a statement of the amount of several leading articles of Western Produce shipped East. ward from Pittsburgh from April 8th to May 20, 1843, compared with the season of 1839:

1839. 1843. Bacon lbs. . 7,513,593 Bacon lbs. . 8,362,093

When we recollect the tide of business in 1839 and the disadvantages under which the business community has labored this season, we have in this exhibit a proof of the rapidity with which we of the West are recovering from our paralysis.

No fears need be entertained of low water on the Ohio. The time has gone by when water delayed freight and travellers at this point. Unless a very extraordinary drought should occur, every thing shipped via Pittsburgh will be forwarded without delay. Within a few years a class of steamers of very light draught has been constructed for the special purpose of shipping during the season of low water. Some of these boats will carry 60 tons of freight on 10 and 12 inches

It seems as though the Pine trade on the Upper Mississippi is going to cut us out of a considrable market. The principal supplies of St. Louis and other towns above have been drawn from the Alleghany; but from what we hear, no doubt hereafter they will be supplied from a source nearer home and far less expensive.

Several of the Canal Transportation lines have been bringing on fish and selling at an advance barely sufficient to clear themselves: a mode of business the merchants grumble at; inasmuch as resentatives of the Manufacturing interests of the operation curtails their business by cutting

REAL ESTATE. As an evidence of the great decrease in the value of real estate in Philadelphia, I would instance the sale of one of the most beautiful and valuable private proper-ties within the bounds of the whole city. The magnificent mansion and splendid lot belonging to the late Edward Cole-man, on Arch-street, above Tenth, which originally cost $50,000, was sold yesterday at private sale for $18,000, be-

FRUIT.—In conversation with a number of our Jersey and Delayrate farmers, I learn that appearances indicate a most abundant season for various kinds of Fruit, but more particularly peaches and apples. They represent the peach trees as being very heavy, many of which will have to be thuned in order to prevent their breaking down. The coun-try generally also wears a promising aspect.

There is but little doing in exchanges. Rates continue vithout change, except Mobile, which has again become something worsu-12; to 13 being demanded. The extent of our commercial transactions during the past week have been rather limited, except perhaps in flour an grain. For the former the demand has been pretty stendy, and the sales rather large. An advance in rates has taken place, and common brands are now held by several at $4.50. The Religious Assemblies.

PHILADELPHIA, May 26-P. M. GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE PRESENTERIAN CHURCH, (OLD SCHOOL.)-The Assembly met at 4 P. M. vesterday afternoon. Prayer by the Moderator. Minutes read.

The Committee on Mileage reported that there had been paid to the Treasurer, on account of the Commissioners' Fund, $671.41, and the mileage of the members amounted to $666 97, leaving a balance of $4 44. The Commissioners state there has been 13,079 miles traveled in coming to he present Assembly.

Rev. Dr. Hoge, from the Committee to whom had been ferred the subject of the approaching Bi-Centenary of the Westminster Assembly, made a report, accompanied with a series of resolutions, recommending their adoption, which was ordered to be placed on the Docket.

The Committee on Bills and Overtures reported favorably of a new Synod, to be composed of the Presbyteries of Logusport, Lake and Michigan, to be called the Synod of North Ludiana. Placed on the Docket.

A request from Mr. Bokum, to be heard in behalf of the American Society relative to the conversion of the Jews, was acceded to, and this day, at a quarter of an hour before as accepted to, and this day, at a quarter of an non-l o'clock, was selected.

The application of the New-York Congregational Society for a correspondence with the Assembly, was reported unfa-vocably of, and the subject was dismissed from the farther torsiny of an the subject was distinsed from the consideration of the Assembly.

The unfinished business of the morning, declaring that it is the judgement of the Assembly that neither the Constitution nor the practice of the Church recognizes the right of Ruling Elders to impose hands in the ordination of Min-isters," was then taken up, and considerable discussion for lowed. The Rev-Messrs. Eagleson, Howard, Smith and Longmore spoke upon the subject. The question upon the adoption of the resolution being finally put, it was decided by 122 members voting for, and 3 against it, 3 being excused. The selection of a place for holding the next meeting of the General Assembly was next in order, and upon a vote be-ing taken, the result proved as follows: For Philadelphia 47, for Louisville 98, for Cincinnati 1—so the next Assembly

Another animated discussion immediately ensued, which was conducted throughout in a warm but respectful manner. The interest was most intense, and great anxiety manifested itself at the result. The debate was participated in by the Rev. Dr. Cook, Rev. Dr. El, Rev. Mr. West, Rev. Dr. Edward Beecher, Mr. Myers, and Rev. Dr. Linsley, when the question upon the adoption of the resolution was taken and arried by a majority of 33-the vote being 66 for and 33 against it. The Rev. Dr. Linsley then made a very beautiful and feeling prayer, when several matters of little interest were disposed of, after which the Assembly adjourned until this orning. This Morning's Session .- At 9 o'clock the Assembly Minutes read and approved. Rev. Dr. Cleland, or Providence, and Rev. Mr. Joseph C Stiles, of Harmony Presbyteries, were in attendance. The devotional exercises were this morning conducted by the Rev. Messrs. Clark. Little, Danforth and Cook.

The Committee on Bills and Overtures made several ports, all of which were placed upon the docket. A report in favor of opening a correspondence with the Evangelical Lutheren Church, was adopted.

The Rev. Dr. Dickenson submitted a report enclosing the following, which was placed upon the docket: Resolved, That the Assembly hold its meetings trien nially, and can receive delegates but once in three years from corresponding bodies, it is inexpedient to send delegates to

A number of reports were submitted and adopted, but as they were of an uninteresting character, I deem it inexpedient to allude in detail to them. The Assembly went into session with closed doors.

Colonization Meeting.-The meeting of the Pennsylvania State Colonization Society, held last evening, in the Sixth Presbyterian Church, was numer-ously attended, and a deep interest manifested itself through-out. The address of the Rev. Mr. Gurley was indeed an able one. The remarks of Elliott Cressou, E.q., alluding to his travels, was particularly touching and interesting.

CATHOLIC CONFIRMATION .- This morning, the interesting ceremony of confirmation took place in St. Philip's Church, Queen-street, Southwark, y the Rt, Rev. Bishop Kendrick, of St. Louis, assisted by he Rev. Messrs. Donohue, Gilligan, Dann and Walsh. The solemn and impressive ceremony was administered to about 200 persons, both male and female, and the scene is represented to have been one of the most gratifying character. The Rev. Mr. Gartland officiated at High Mass. The church of St. Philip's is yet in its infancy, having been commenced about two years since, but bids fair to take a prominent rank among those of more mature age. It is under the charge of Rev. J. P. Duan, a zealous and devout Christian, universally beloved by the whole Catholic portion of our community

Ascension Day .- Yesterday was observed as a festival of great solemnity at St. John's Catholie Church, Thirteenth-street above Market. The Bishop of New-Orleans officiated at Grand High Mass, and Bis Hughes, of New-York, delivered the sermon. Several Bishops and about thirty Priests and Students were present in the Sanctuary, and the great body of the Church was filled with people participating in the exercises.

TREMONT THEATRE. There have been several reports circulated recently in relation to a sale of the Tremont Theatre, to be converted into a church, which have proved unfounded. We are now authorized to state that yesterday afternoon, Messrs. Timothy Gilbert, S. G. Shipley, Thomas Gould and William S. Damrell purchased of the Committee of the Corporation the Tremont Theatre, for the sum of fifty thousand dollars. It is to be remodeled in such a manner as to make it a convenient place for scientific lectures. &c., and also for the purpose of accommodating the church (Rev. Mr. Colver's) now worshiping at the corner of Tremont and Bromfield-streeets. Boston Mercantile Journal.

WHOLE NO. 664. SANDS'S SARSAPARILLA.

THIS MEDICINE stands unrivalled, (based as

It is on its intriusic merits,) for the removal and radical cure of those diseases to which it is peculiarly adapted. Being entirely vegetable, and composed of the choicest selection in the composed of the choicest selection. ing entirely vegetable, and composed of the choicest selection of ingredients, which act in consonance with the laws that govern the animal economy, the system is enabled to throw off disease, take on a healthy action, and the powers of nature resume their natural functions. Thousands can, and have, testified to its efficacy in removing various chronic constitutional diseases, originating in an unhealthy or deprayed state of the blood and other fands, servofula or enlargement of the glands, theumatism and lumbage, salt rheam, ring warm, barber's itch, eczema and other similar affections, are safely and effectually cured by its use, but us by the "chosen few," this is sometimes termed quackery, the subject requires a passing remark. "The question, what is quackery and who is a quack, is of serious moment, and as the preservation of health is too important to be trifled with, it is of the greatest consequence where disease invades our physical frame, to take prompt and efficient measures to repel the attack. Whether he was stands on his reserved rights, and poescribes ad libitum; the most powerful agents, including some of the most virulent poisons, and in case of a fatal termination, simply says that the patient died of — or he who by laborious and long continued investigation, draws forth from the arcana of nature hidden stores of useful knowledge and applies it to the benefit of suffering humanity, risking his own reputation in the result, is most entitled to public confidence, the afflicted can determine it is the mark of a weak and prejudiced mind, to reject any thing as false because it does not agree with its own pacton ceived notions; but it is evidence of a noble and generou mind to Ngw-York, April 29th, 1813.

Messrs. Sand: New-York, April 29th, 1813.

Messrs. Sand: Gentlemen—Although it may be considered unnecessary for me to add another proof to the justly deserved celebrity of your invaluable preparation of Sarsaparilla, yet for the benefit of my fellow men, I feel bound to proclaim the fact: From boing a most helpless cripple, with a disease of the lower extremities, which spread over the legs, instep, and feet, distressing me no much, as to render life almost miserable. I am now quite recovered and entirely by the use of your Sarsaparilla. For two years I was unable to wear a shoe, and the tright foot and ancle were very much swollen—which at times discharged water and pus freely, accompanied with violent itching—and burning sensations, so as to deprive me of all rest. I gave up in despair, and supposed amputation would be necessary; but hearing of greatcures made by your Sarsaparilla, I resolved to make another effort to regain my health—and now under the biessing of a kind to regain my health—and now under the blessing of a kin Providence, I am thankful to say I am well.
